

Pierre Coppens Prize

« Company Law »

The three-yearly prize of 15,000 Euros, instituted by the Revue Pratique des Sociétés (Belgium), will be awarded in June 2008.

The prize is destined to reward a doctor or graduate in law from a European university who is under forty years of age and who has written a book or paper dedicated to a fundamental aspect of commercial law or any aspect of fiscal company law or additionally to topics of public law, social law, economic law, European law or international law in connection with commercial companies. The condition for age applied is that at the time of publication of the paper The study must be an original work, written in French, Dutch, English, German, Italian or Spanish.

The prize will be awarded by an inter-university jury. Candidates are invited to send five copies of their paper before 31 January 2008 to the President of the Jury:

Professor Yves De Cordt
Centre Jean Renault
Département de droit économique et social de l'UCL
Collège Thomas More
Place Montesquieu, 2
B-1348 LOUVAIN-LA-NEUVE
Belgium
Tél: +32-(0)10-47.47.58.
Fax: +32-(0)10-47.47.57.
e-mail : josette.castelle@deso.ucl.ac.be