

Co-organized by
Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies
Fondation Francqui Stichting
Université catholique de Louvain

For more information, please contact Professor Hylke Vandenbussche hylke.vandenbussche@uclouvain.be
Phone : +32.10.47 41 37

For registration or more info, please contact
Mr D. Belis
david.belis@ggs.kuleuven.be
Phone : +32 16.32.55.70

Website - Chair Jacquemin :
<http://www.uclouvain.be/en-chaire-jacquemin.html>

The Jacquemin chair in European Economy announces the Inauguration of the External Chair
Francqui

Professor Petros Mavroidis

The World Trade Organization and the Role of Preferential Regional Arrangements

Tuesday October 6, 2009

Auditorium Zeger Van Hee
Faculty of Law Tiensestraat, 41
B-3000 Leuven

Petros C. Mavroidis is a professor at Columbia Law School and in Neuchâtel, Switzerland. His continued effort to shape the field of Law & Economics on WTO matters is remarkable.

For his outstanding achievements in this area, UCL and KULeuven jointly decide to award him the International Chair Francqui with the financial support of the Fondation Francqui

International Francqui Chair 2009

Prof. Petros Mavroidis

(Neuchâtel and Univ. of Columbia, US)

Program

17:30 - Registration

18:00 - Introduction

Prof. Jan Wouters

Director of the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies

18:05 - Welcome Address

Prof. Paul Van Orshove

Dean of Faculty of Law at K.U.Leuven

18:10 - Inauguration

Prof. Pierre Moerbeke

Chairman of the Francqui Foundation

18:30 - Keynote Lecture by

Prof. Petros Mavroidis

The World Trade Organization and the Role of Preferential Regional Arrangements

Chair : Prof. Hylke Vandenbussche

International Economics at the Université catholique de Louvain

20:00 - Reception