

Population – Environment: theory, findings, and problems of linking people to pixel

2 – 3 June 2009

Keynote speaker:
Professor Richard E. Bilborrow
Carolina Population Center

2 June 2009

9h30 Welcome and registration

10h-12h Population and the Environment in Tropical Forest Regions

14h00 Individual discussions with Prof. Bilborrow

3 June 2009

10h-12h Migration, Environment and Development

14h00 Individual discussions with Prof. Bilborrow

Richard Bilborrow is Professor of Biostatistics. As an economist-demographer, he has extensive experience developing, implementing and analyzing household and community surveys which have contributed to many studies investigating issues such as environmental change and migrations.

Venue: Université catholique de Louvain, Département de Géographie
Mercator building Room MERC14 Place Pasteur 3, 1348 Louvain-la-Neuve
Registration : Obligatory for doctoral students on www.uclouvain.be/geo.

Registration ends 15th of May 2009. Lectures open to all.

Contact: Sabine Henry, FUNDP, sabine.henry@fundp.ac.be ;

Veerle Vanacker, UCL, veerle.vanacker@uclouvain.be; Sophie Vanwambeke, UCL,
sophie.vanwambeke@uclouvain.be

Complete details: www.uclouvain.be/geo