

PricewaterhouseCoopers is the leading audit and consulting firm in the world and in Belgium, employing over 1200 professionals of different backgrounds.

The Insurance and Benefits Actuarial Department includes actuaries and works in close collaboration with our IFRS specialists, Risk Management Consultants, Tax and Legal consultants, Deals specialists, as well as with our Auditors.

To reinforce our team in the framework of our consulting activities for insurance companies and employee benefits, our Actuarial Department is looking for:

Polyvalent Junior Actuaries (m/f)

Your profile

- ❑ You are a qualified or nearly qualified actuary
- ❑ You are eager to learn, dynamic, pro-active and have team spirit
- ❑ You like international environment and have good skills in English

Your tasks

- ❑ You will be involved in actuarial valuations under IFRS and USGAAP for employee benefits
- ❑ You will be involved in actuarial support to auditors for IFRS and statutory accounts
- ❑ You will assist more experienced actuaries in various domains (life and non life) such as
 - conversion to IFRS accounting for international clients
 - risk management related project
 - life and non life portfolios modelling
 - providing accredited actuary opinions
 - Solvency II related projects

If you are interested to discuss with us, then please send your application to:

Christophe Crochet
Woluwedal 18,
1932 St-Stevens-Woluwe, tel +32 2 710 71 98
christophe.crochet@pwc.be