

PHILIPPE DE WOOT AWARD The Inter-University Award For Best Master Thesis On Corporate Social Responsibility

Subject: « Philippe de Woot 2012 Award » – Intra-university award for the best Master Thesis on Corporate Social Responsibility.

Dear Professors,
Dear Students,

We are pleased to inform you on a call for candidature for the intra-university « Philippe de Woot Award » which was set up to promote a sustainable corporate social responsibility. Every two years, a Master thesis from a Belgian Business School or University will be awarded which constitutes an original contribution to the understanding and thinking of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

To ensure the recognition of this Prize and a large diffusion of CSR, the awarding ceremony will take place at the time of a conference animated by reputed speakers from different backgrounds on the theme 'CSR'.

The « Philippe de Woot Award » is for any student graduated from a Belgian University or Business School at Master level and whose Master thesis is about corporate social responsibility or sustainable enterprises. Candidates must have completed their thesis during their academic year in 2009-2010 or in 2010-2011.

The award-winner will receive a prize of 3,000 EUR. 1,500 EUR will be directly given to the student and the remaining 1,500 EUR will be offered to an environmental or a social project to be chosen by the student. In addition, communication in the media and international networks will be ensured.

The deadline to address candidatures is set for October 1st, 2011.

Please find herewith a detailed presentation of the award and the procedure for applying.
