

Students, future managers of tomorrow, participate in “The Inter-University Philippe de Woot 2012 award”, Best Master Thesis On Corporate Social Responsibility

The Inter-University PHILIPPE DE WOOT Award

The inter-university “Philippe de Woot Award” aims to promote sustainability Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) by awarding, every two years, a Master thesis from a Belgian University which constitutes an original contribution to the understanding and thinking about Corporate Social Responsibility.

The award is for any student graduated from a Belgian University or Business School at Master level and whose Master thesis is about corporate social responsibility or sustainable enterprises.

Candidates must have completed their thesis during their academic year in 2009-2010 or in 2010-2011.

Candidates can only participate once to this award.

The award-winner will receive a prize of € 3,000. €1,500 will be directly given to the student and the remaining €1,500 will be offered to an environmental or a social project to be chosen by the student. In addition, communication in the media and international networks will be ensured.

Candidatures for the 2012 award should be sent for the 1st of October 2011 the latest.
