Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

The minor in criminology invites students to examine crime, deviance, marginality and the way society monitors these issues as well as introducing them to the basic disciplines of criminology.

Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The minor in criminology includes 30 credits, spread over the second and third years of the Bachelor program.

- The minor in criminology invites students to examine crime, deviance, marginality and the way society monitors these issues as well as introducing them to the basic disciplines of criminology.
- The minor offers students of legal sciences, political and social sciences, psychological and educational sciences and medical sciences an additional period of training in a field close to their own.
- It could be the prompt a student needs to change his/her study path and, in this case, reduces the number of mandatory lessons to take in the first year of the Masters in criminology.

Infos

Registering for the minor

1 Organizational details

Minor course take place during the day on Tuesday morning, Wednesday and Thursday all day and Friday morning.

2 Admission to the minor

See the Admission Requirements

3 Registering for the minor and checks on the registration form

BAC2

The registration via internet enables to enchaining directly with the listing option (the student must be registered in BAC2 before enrolling an option).

If this method is not used, the student has access to the registration option via its virtual office (UCL access the portal, login, click on "my office").

The student who begins again his BAC2 is automatically re-registered.

BAC3

Upon registration in the third year of baccalaureate, students are automatically enrolled in the second part of the option followed in the second year (BAC2). It is the same for students retaking their third year of the Bachelor.

Any request for an exception to this rule must be submitted to the academic advisor of the bachelor program followed.

4 Checks on registration forms for the minor

Checks are carried out by the "conseiller aux etudes" (course adviser) from the faculty of origin.

5 Changes to the registration for the minor

Should you wish to make any changes to the registration, please consult the "conseiller aux etudes" (course adviser) from the faculty of origin.

Course timetable

1 Consulting the course timetable : <https://uclouvain.be/horaires-drt>

2 Resolving possible timetable clashes using an equivalence table

For any changes to a standard minor program where there is a timetable clash, the student must first obtain the agreement of the "conseiller aux etudes" (course adviser) from his faculty of origin and permission from the academic responsible for the minor in criminology.
