This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	Internship in a public or private organization or institution (90 hours), where philosophical skills may be relevant. Observation and participation in the life of the organization/institution under the supervision of an internship supervisor. The specific objectives, achievements to be accomplished during the internship, and the internship plan are defined in advance and jointly by the student, the internship supervisor, and the EU manager. Writing a logbook and a final report. If the internship takes place in a compulsory education setting, students will not be allowed to wear religious symbols. If the internship takes place in a private company, students must comply with that company's work regulations. It is the student's responsibility to find an internship that meets these requirements.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Identify and assume a relevant role as a philosopher within a specific organizational context. 2 apply philosophical skills (analysis, problematization, argumentation) to situations, projects, or tasks encountered in a concrete organizational context. 3 combine the practical experience gained during the internship with the theoretical knowledge acquired during your studies in philosophy. 4 adopter une posture réflexive sur sa propre pratique et en rendre compte dans un rapport de stage.
Other infos	The work placement must be carried out in the academic year in which it is included in the student's annual programme. In the workplace, the ban on wearing religious symbols stipulated in the work regulations also applies to interns.
