

5.00 credits

15.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Husson Jean-François ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course will be composed of two big parts of 15 hours each : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The first part will be dedicated to the presentation of the main objectives of the social security policies. A grid of analysis will be elaborated in order to give an overview of the mechanisms implemented in the policies that touch the mode of financing at a time and to the mode of distribution of the benefits • The second part will be organized as conferences and shops in which of the representatives of the main economic, social actors and the administration will present their diagnoses, analyses and propositions on questions that concern the politics of the social security (reform of the fashion of financing, resort to the selectivity, privatization, creation of an insurance dependence, accompaniment of claimants d 'use etc.)
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To understand the structuring of the Belgian social security and her foundations • To acquire the capacity to analyze the main devices structuring the policies of social security, their consistency and their dynamics 1 • To articulate the policies of social security and other public policies (fiscal politics, politics of redistribution of incomes, politics of employment • To emphasize the position of the main actors of the politics of employment (government, social interlocutors)
Evaluation methods	Individual oral examination
Teaching methods	Lectures supplemented by examples taken from current events and (subject to confirmation) contributions from figures in the socio-economic sphere.
Content	The course will consist of two main parts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The first part will be devoted to presenting the main objectives of social security policies. Comparative elements will be discussed in order to provide an overview of the mechanisms implemented in policies relating to both the method of financing and the method of distributing benefits. • Where possible, the course will be supplemented by lectures or workshops in which representatives of the main economic and social actors and the administration will present their diagnoses, analyses and proposals on issues relating to social security policy (reform of the method of financing, use of selectivity, privatisation, support for job seekers, etc.).
Inline resources	Course materials available on Moodle
Other infos	This course forms part of a study programme that takes place in the evenings and on Saturday morning.
Faculty or entity in charge	TRAV

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Labour sciences (shift schedule)	TRAV2M	5
Master [120] in Sociology	SOC2M	5		